
Each point is one run; large markers show medians and bars show the interquartile range.